World Book Day

Next Thursday is World Book Day. The children can come to school dressed as a book character. They should bring with them the book that the character is from. If they do not want to dress up then they should come in their usual school uniform (it is not a non-uniform day).

Kwik sticks hockey

Some of the year 3 & 4 children are taking part in a kwik-sticks hockey tournament at Richmond School on Friday. Those involved have a letter attached to this newsletter.

Olympic Athlete Visit

On 6th March we are having a visit from Stephanie Inglis, an Olympic athlete. Sponsor forms have been given out to all the children to help raise money towards the cost of her training. Once the target figure is reached, the school are able to keep any extra so please do try and get as many sponsors as possible.

Travelling Books Book Fair

Cake sale

Eva & Fergus held a cake sale in school this morning to raise money for Limb Power, a charity which supports a friend of theirs who has a prosthetic limb. They have worked really hard in planning, organising and running the sale and did a fantastic job selling tasty goodies to their peers. Grand total was £40.00. Well done!

SAT's Club

SAT's revision classes with Mr Watson began this week, after school. The children worked really hard during the session and were keen to learn and improve on what they already know, in preparation for their tests in May.

Cross country

A reminder for the juniors that EVERY Friday lunchtime is cross country with Mike. Today we have had 2 people with no PE kit at all, one with no trainers, and 3 with no tracksuit bottoms. Please remember kit.
